What the experts say

Superb aroma of apricot essence, honeysuckle and citrus fruit. On the palate the crisp, fresh acidity from the Vermentino is perfectly balanced by the broader-textured character of Viognier and Chardonnay. The subtle use of oak adds an extra dimension but is by no means intrusive. Long finish.

What the experts say

The VVC has a light lemon colour, with flashes of light green. On the nose, it has floral aromas of elderflower, honeysuckle with hints of white stone fruit, with a very elegant citrus envelope. The palate is very fruity, with a creamy and smooth smokiness. On the finish, the floral notes make way for the citrus fruitiness and the wine has a great finish

-Martin Heidsieck (of the champagne family), at 67 Pall Mall – the most prestigious wine club in London.

On the nose, sweet spices, cinnamon, nutmeg (indicating new oak?), white floral notes (jasmine, chamomile), peach yogurt, clementine, – a very welcoming, inviting but complex nose. On the palate, less ripe, more fresh, delicious, very moreish with good acidity and length.
